2. The quiz incorporates the following formats:

Multiple-choice Paddle Quiz

The multiple-choice segment allows participants to perform in a low-key competitive atmosphere. Participants from each book are given an opportunity to answer a series of multiple-choice questions using paddles A-B-C.

Written Quiz

The written quiz segment is a timed segment where participants answer a series of questions. It is held in a room separate from where the rest of the quiz meets.

The coach may accompany clubbers to the written quiz room to make sure they take the correct test. Prior to start of the written quiz, coaches will be dismissed.

The written quiz questions are all multiple choice. Clubbers will choose A,B,C,or D as their answer.

Speed Quiz

In the speed quiz segment, clubbers from each book compete against other clubbers in the same book. There is a series of questions per book. All clubbers will be read the quiz question. The first person to respond is given an opportunity to answer the question.

Cumulative scores from each format are used to determine the winner.

Organization

1. The organization of the Bible Quiz meet depends on the number of churches and clubbers participating.
2. All clubbers participate as individuals in each book. Each clubber's score will be the result of their individual effort.

Registration

Eligibility

Each clubber must quiz from the handbook they are currently working in. Each clubber may quiz in only one handbook. Each clubber may only quiz one time in a handbook (for instance, a clubber who quizzed in Grace in Action book in one year, could not quiz in Grace in Action again (whether it is the following year or two years).

Apparel

2. All participants (including coaches and staff) must wear your club's official Awana uniform. Shorts are not permitted.

Quiz Questions and Answers

1. All questions will be taken from the material in the latest edition of the Awana handbooks (KJV, NKJV, NIV (1984), and ESV). Participants are not expected to interpret the materials.
2. Assigned materials will consist of Units 1 and 2 in the current year of Agents of Grace, Discovery of Grace, Evidence of Grace, and Grace in Action. Start Zones ARE also included in the assigned material.
3. The event specialist will determine the specific questions to be asked.
4. Questions may be asked on any part of the assigned materials, including verses, Bible readings, definitions, etc....
5. The quizmaster prefaces each question with the word "question." No talking is allowed from the word "question" until the answer is given.
6. Should the quizmaster read a question improperly, the question may be either started over or discarded and a new one selected at the quizmaster's sole discretion.
7. All Bible verses MUST be quoted word-perfect according to the latest edition of the Awana handbook. Any translation in which Awana publishes curriculum may be used. If requested, the quotation must include the complete reference.
8. No live streaming, audio, video, or written recording of questions is allowed.

2. All appeals are directed to the quizmaster. When recognized, the coach confers privately with the quizmaster. After the coach voices the question, the coach must return to his or her seat while a decision is being made.

3. The quizmaster may consult with the event specialist or judges before making a decision. In all cases, the decision of the quizmaster is final.

Rules on the Types of Quiz

Multiple-Choice Paddle Quiz

1. For each book, clubbers will be asked a series of multiple-choice questions.
2. Questions and possible answers will be read once. There will be three answers to choose from. Quizzers have five seconds to determine their choice of answers. Questions may be read twice if the quizmaster deems it necessary.
3. During the reading of the questions, quizzers must look down at their paddles while deciding their answers. Looking any other place may result in disqualification from that question (known as an “eye violation”).
4. When all answers have been given, the quizmaster will say, “Think about your answer”. When the five seconds are up, the quizmaster will say, “Paddles up.”
5. During the five-second answer time, quizzers select the answer they believe to be correct. Then, at the call “Paddles up,” all clubbers will raise the paddle that corresponds to their answer at the same time.
6. After the “Paddles up” call has been made, no paddle may be exchanged for another paddle.
7. If a participant’s paddle is raised late, the participant is disqualified from that question.
8. Paddles are to be held up until the command “Paddles Down” is given. At the “Paddles down” command, participants lower their paddles.
9. Clubbers & individuals are awarded 10 points for each correct answer.
10. A round of multiple-choice quiz will consist of 10 questions.

Speed Quiz

1. The number of flights (groups) for speed quiz for each book will be determined by the number of quizzers registered for each book. Any flights not participating in the current round of speed quiz or written quiz will be held in a separate room until their turn to quiz.
2. Questions will be read once. Quizzers may press their button to answer as soon as they feel they can correctly answer the question. The entire question does not have to be read.
3. If a quizzer buzzes in (responds) before the question is completed, the quizmaster will stop. The clubber must then give a correct, specific answer.
4. The clubber has 10 seconds to reach the microphone and begin. They then have 30 more seconds to complete the answer. Grace may be extended for longer answers. However, the quizzer should indicate within 10 seconds if he or she cannot answer, thereby avoiding unnecessary delays and embarrassment.
5. We do not allow stalling by saying, "My answer is," then stopping. This answer or one like it will not count as starting an answer within the 10 seconds. Any initial answer must be directly related to the question.

6. When a speed question has been answered, the quizmaster will ask, "Is that your final answer?" Only when the quizzer answers "yes," or time runs out, will the question be ruled correct or incorrect with "That is a correct answer," or, "I'm sorry, that is an incorrect answer."
7. Correct answers are awarded 20 points. Incorrect answers will not result in a points penalty.
8. If the first quizzer responding is incorrect, the next quizzer buzzing in will be given the opportunity to answer the question for 20 points. Incorrect answers will not result in a points penalty. The Quizmaster will reread the question to the point where the first clubber buzzed in and then the clubber has five (5) seconds to begin his/her answer.
9. If the first quizzer answers incorrectly and there is no second buzz in, the question will be re-read as if it were a new question. However, the quizzer who answered incorrectly will be ineligible to answer on the second reading.
10. If no quizzer responds in 10 seconds, time is called, and the next question given.
11. Questions asked (other than Scripture quotations) may be answered in the participant's own words but must be close to what the handbook states. The judges determine whether anything important to the meaning has been left out or altered.
12. If a quiz participant quickly corrects himself or herself in the process of giving their answer, the corrected answer will be accepted.
13. Answers that contain extraneous information may be considered incorrect, even if the correct answer is included.
14. Help from the audience counts as a wrong answer, even if the answer is correct.
15. Any clubber answering three questions correctly "quizzes out" and is awarded an extra 20 points.
16. Competitors having two wrong answers in the speed quiz are ineligible to answer additional questions.
17. Individual speed questions will not be repeated unless the quizmaster deems it necessary.
18. A round of speed quizzing will consist of 12 questions.

Scoring

Scores from all segments are added together to determine the winner. In the event of a tie, the clubber answering the most written test questions correctly will receive 5 points to break the tie. If that does not break the tie, there will then be two winning clubbers.
